

PRESS RELEASE

31.01.18

HERONSBRIDGE SCHOOL RECOGNISED AS AN INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

Héronsbridge School, catering for the additional learning needs of children aged 3-19, has been awarded gold accreditation against the Investors in People Standard, demonstrating their commitment to high performance through good people management.

Héronsbridge School is residential special school in Bridgend catering for the needs of pupils with profound and multiple learning difficulties (PMLD), severe learning difficulties (SLD) and autistic spectrum disorders (ASD). The school currently employs 200 staff and invests a great deal in its staff through the training and support they receive.

Investors in People is the international standard for people management, defining what it takes to lead, support and manage people effectively to achieve sustainable results. Underpinning the Standard is the Investors in People framework, reflecting the latest workplace trends, essential skills and effective structures required to outperform in any industry. Investors in People enables organisations to benchmark against the best in the business on an international scale.

Paul Devoy, Head of Investors in People, said: “We’d like to congratulate Heronsbridge School, Investors in People accreditation is the sign of a great employer, an outperforming place to work and a clear commitment to success. Heronsbridge School should be extremely proud of their achievement.”

Commenting on the award, Jeremy Evans, Headteacher, said: “Gaining the Gold accreditation marks our twenty-one year Investors in People journey. The gold accreditation is a reflection of our values as an organisation and it truly reflects the commitment and effort of everyone working at Heronsbridge – past and present. I would like to thank everyone for the part they play in making Heronsbridge a fantastic place to work and for making a difference to the lives of so many pupils and their families.”

For more information about Investors in People please visit www.investorsinpeople.com